Molino Recreation Association is looking forward to another great & exciting season in 2011. The park is growing each season and can only continue to grow by encouraging children and parents to be involved in their local parks. If you would be interested in managing or coaching please let a board member know when you come for registration. If you have any general questions about our park feel free to contact our president, Jayson Ging @ 587-2825.
