Bank Family Airline Tickets

The final details of the visitation and funeral plans for Tate Aggie Football player, Sean Banks and his sister Antoinette McCoy, have been arranged. The Visitation will be held at Tracy Morton Memorial Chapel on Friday, 18 January from 2 pm to 8 pm. The Funeral service will take place on Saturday, 19 January at 9 am, Hillcrest Baptist Church. The QB Club has received numerous emails, texts, and messages from people, churches, and other organizations asking how to help, so here it is!

The Banks family was experiencing extreme financial hardship to fund flights for immediate family members to travel from Virginia to Pensacola for the services and burial. Based upon time constraints related to booking and arranging flights, the Tate QB Club paid for these airline tickets in full. If anyone would like to donate to the Tate QB Club, your support would be greatly appreciated. The cost of the airline tickets was $2787.00. Since the Tate QB Club is a 501(c)(3) organization, all funds for the flights will be used for that sole purpose - this is not a typical fund-raising event. Any money received above and beyond $2787.00 will be provided to the Banks family to offset any other expenses associated with the funeral and burial expenses of Sean and his sister.

Thanks so much for your kindness and support of this family during this time of extreme grief.

Checks payable to Tate QB Club (Memo line – Banks Airline Tickets). You can also donate online at TateHighSchoolFootball.com/shop and click on “Banks Family Airline Tickets.” Donations online are accepted in increments of $5. You can change the quantity to donate your desired amount. Your help is greatly appreciated!
